Switch Kit Checklist

This checklist helps you organize the things you need to do when switching your banking relationship to Pacific Crest Savings Bank. Follow these simple steps and see the advantage of being a valued customer!

Open Your Accounts at Pacific Crest Savings Bank

- Open your new accounts: New customers please visit our office at 3500 188th St. SW, Suite 575, Lynnwood. Current customers may call or visit our office. We'll order checks and debit cards for you.
- Switch your direct deposits to your Pacific Crest checking account, using the Direct Deposit Change Request form.
- Switch your federal deposits (such as social security) to your Pacific Crest checking account by visiting the government's website, www.GoDirect.org.
- Enroll in free Online Banking and Bill Payer.
- Switch your automatic payments to be deducted from your Pacific Crest account, using the Automatic Payment Change Notification form.

Close Your Old Account

- Stop using your old account but leave enough money to cover outstanding checks or withdrawals.
- When all outstanding checks have cleared and all automatic withdrawals have been switched to Pacific Crest, close your old account, using the Account Closure Request form.
- Destroy any unused checks, deposit slips, and ATM/Debit cards for your old account.

Thank you for choosing Pacific Crest Savings Bank!
