Lending Officer Todd M. Hull Joins Pacific Crest Savings Bank

Lynnwood, Wash.—Pacific Crest Savings Bank is pleased to announce that Todd M. Hull has joined the Lynnwood community bank as lending officer. Hull brings over 20 years of banking experience to his new role, including 17 years in the commercial, income property and construction real estate sectors.

“Todd’s knowledge of real estate lending in the Puget Sound market is a perfect fit for our community and client focused approach,” said Sheryl Nilson, CEO of Pacific Crest Savings Bank.

Prior to joining Pacific Crest Savings Bank, Hull served in a variety of capacities at Banner Bank in Bellevue, Wash., for 10 years. He has worked extensively in commercial real estate in Washington, Idaho and Oregon throughout every stage of the lending process, including origination, portfolio management, stress testing, and appraisal.

At Pacific Crest Savings Bank, Hull will work with clients to provide portfolio loans for commercial, multifamily, floating home and residential properties. Hull has won several awards for his work with the Rental Housing Association of King County.

“I’m eager to work at an independently-owned community bank like Pacific Crest; I was drawn to their reputation for providing customized financing and solutions for borrowers,” said Hull. “I’m looking forward to leveraging all of my combined experience to sit down with customers and build productive, lasting relationships that address their needs and promote growth.”

Hull graduated from Washington State University with a bachelor’s degree in business and economics.

Pacific Crest Savings Bank was recently recognized by the Puget Sound Business Journal as a 2016 “Best Workplace.” To learn more, visit www.paccrest.com or call (425) 670-9600.
